The New Northwest.

A Journal for the People. Devoted to the Interests of Husnanity, Independent in Politics and Religion. Allye to all Live Issues, and Thoroughly Radical in Opposing and Exposing the Wrongs

Correspondents writing over assumed signs tures must make known their names to the Editor, or no attention will be given to their

[For the New Northwest.] What is Death?

BY INOLA WORTH

or the Musses.

What is Death? Two asked my waiting spirit reject others-that is infidelity. It is This vital question o'er and o'er; What is Death, that mortals quake and lear if, And elling so closely to the earthly shore ?. Is it not a folding of the weary hands

In peaceful rest seroes the aching heart? A silent breaking of the earthly bands? A gently whispered summons to depart?

What is beath ? Is it a monster flerce, With hideous form and mien? Oh! If we could but for a moment pierce

The clouds which gather o'er the great up When the dread messenger appears in sight

We would welcome him with outstretched Seeing beyond this life a beauteous light, Where we shall rest, seems from all that

There is a selemm grandour in the thought Tiest Immortality will some day fold Her spotters robe pound us, and we shall float Out with the obbling ride to the untold,

Mysterious, grand and boundless land From whence no one returns; and we Alone shalf float, until the outstretched hand Of never failing Love Divine we see,

There shall we rest, and eye bath never see Nor ear both heard, nor yet the mind of man bath e'er conceived, the wor

Of joys eternal which the Father of mankin Eath laid up in that blessed spirit land For those who love Him here; and well

That hight, nor depth, nor any earthly hand Shall keep as from the Mighty One who loves Resort

PROFESSOR CHANEY.

EDITOR NEW NORTHWEST:

Permit me, through the medium of your paper, to present a few thoughtts in relation to the great question to which the New Northwest is devoted. He who points out our faults voted. He who points out our faults is certainly no less a friend than he who is certainly no less a friend than he who largely increased popularity of our bring a lecturess of some capacity here commends our virtues. The faithful largely increased popularity of our physician will not withhold the true remedy in consequence of its unpleasantness to the taste of the patient.

What I have to say will be said in the utmost candor, and with direct referwhile I doubt not that my sentiments differ widely from those of many of the probased frizing of the same. Tarty-more of the many of the probased frizing of the same required and fresh the widely positive and administer the Government judicional content of the same for the content of the same them the because I thin the probased frizing of the same therein the because I thin the probased frizing of the same through at stake in the Government and the cooperation of the same through at stake in the Government as man—same through at the control of the passed as man—same through at the control of the passed as man—same through at the control of the passed as man—same through at the p ence to the good of Woman Suffrage, while I doubt not that my sentiments Fristiancy is premature, to say the least. It will be abunded by fig. This is all very correct, yet many the expected to be, defeated, But to present a list of candidates for office when the rights of women to vote and the expected to be, defeated, But the expected to be, defeated, But to present a list of candidates for office when the rights of women to vote and hold effice are legally acknowledged. Until then all such after the expectation of the votes cast for the rights of women to you and the early and the transportance of the proper than the world of the such and the present and the world of the expected to say, "fool bless the first of the present that the world of the expected to be, defeated, But the present that the Woodhull and the whole of the last of candidates for office when the expect and the world of the such that our opponents were solement to the proper and the present that the world of the expect and the world that the present that the world of the expect that the world the present that the world of the expect that the world that the world of the expect that the world that the present that the world of the expect that the world that the present that the world the present that the world of the expect that the world that the present that the world that the present the world that the present the world that the present that the present that the world that the present that the world that the present the present that position outside an insane asylum. both parties believe in Woman Suf- "An ill-used wife:" We wouldn't en-Thank God, the religious Christian sen- frage; at least so we suppose from the dure it. Women must learn that they timent of this country is too strong, too statements of individuals prominent in powerful, to brook for a moment such each.

statements of individuals prominent in body but themselves for long-continued willing to make a mere traction of those who give the matter their sympathy, and are body but themselves for long-continued willing to make a mere traction of those who give the matter their sympathy, and are body but themselves for long-continued willing to make a mere traction of those who give the matter their sympathy, and are body but themselves for long-continued willing to make a mere traction of those who give the matter their sympathy, and are body but themselves for long-continued willing to make a mere traction of those who give the matter their sympathy, and are body but themselves for long-continued willing to make a mere traction of those who give the matter their sympathy, and are body but themselves for long-continued willing to make a mere traction of those who give the matter their sympathy, and are body but themselves for long-continued willing to make a mere traction of the matter their sympathy.

Suffrage requires the publication of such articles in papers advocating the cause as Prof. Chancy's on "The Status of as Prof. Chancy's on I beg to be excused from any connec- ble! tion, either directly or indirectly, with But do you not think it strange that were it not that we are compelled to forthe whole thing. If a war upon the the Pioneer should join the opposing give the ignorance that harbors such Bible is necessary to its success, then I faction in denouncing our nomination ideas under such circumstances. say adieu—an eternal adieu—to Woman of an independent candidate as prema-Suffrage, with all its concomitants, But ture? We should have supposed it A "Women's Printing-Office" has re-I deny any such necessity. It is the teaching and principles of the Bible ginning of the end," for which it had that have led me to espouse the cause of Woman Suffrage. Put down the Bible, an article in the Pionear of July 6th, to the taste of skeptics and infidels? I

There are sixty-eight colleges for wotrust you are prepared to take decided
There are sixty-eight colleges for women in the United States.

Swedenborg says that there are marriages in Heaven, and Heaven itself is a marriage.

Jew Northwest

FREE SPEECH, FREE PRESS, FREE PROPER.

PORTLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1871.

CORRESPONDENCE.

This department of the New NORTH-of the Woman Suffrage party—on this time since returned to this office by the Islament.

When Mrs. Duniway started the New coast at least—will perhaps interest you. You will see from the list of her woman Suhrage party—on this time since returned to this office by the Mrs. Duniway started the New Northwest in this city there were but this city, as they intend to, that they you. You will see from the list of her much pleased with the paper, and hopes few women here who had given her know how to use the ballot to advantage. you. You will see from the list of her much pleased with the paper, and hopes few women here who had given her appointments that she lectured every we will not be offended at its being re-doctrines any thought, or if they had, it evening from Monday, the 28th ult., to Monday, the 4th inst., Sunday excepted, and on Thesday night before election we and on Tuesday night before election we healthy man, who is supported by her had another grand mass meeting here, earnings at the wash-tub and boardingand ours were mass meetings, I assure table, refuses to take the paper out of to gain it. you. The first was held at Mozart Hall, the office for her, and so, "in obedience which was filled to overflowing, and to instructions from the Postal Department, and the conferring of the ballot on ment, it comes back. It is hard to admit a woman was started in this city about six months ago. At first it numbered entrance. Through the courtesy of the builder, we were enabled to get the papers of the builder, we were enabled to get the papers of the present anti-woman laws a married after awhile it began to increase, until present anti-woman laws a married after awhile it began to increase, until present anti-woman laws a married after awhile it began to increase, until present anti-woman laws a married after the present anti-woman laws a married and the present anti-woman laws a married and the present authority to the present anti-woman laws a married and the present authority to the present autho standing there being meetings of the disposition after it passes into the greedy most prominent advocates of the docother parties, and a torchlight procession at the same time, it was computed that our antience amounted to over two there being a woman candidate for swept from the statute book. No fear of manner the organization flourished. largely increased popularity of our cause in this county. I wish you could have been present at those meetings.

As the story can only serve as a foil who would express the doctrine to the which have come under our observation public in a fallacious, if not a logical for our efforts to rescue the fragmentary of the addresses of Miss Authory, for The last one, especially, was a scene Northwest. There is one remedy, of the addresses of Miss Anthony, for the Society, which was then scarcely in calculated to inspire the heart of every sentiments as she is charged with ad- Oh, yes, they really do believe in ill treatment. Do you suppose your women's voting;" but then they "think husband would misuse you if you pos-Once more. If the cause of Woman it was the wrong time to take such descensed equal immunities in all things and then what have you left to protect under the head of "Sparious Woman and shield woman from the degradation suffrage," you will perhaps be surthat heathenism pours upon her? Prof. prised to learn that the society there represents the prised to learn that the society there represents the prised to learn that the society there represents the prised to learn that the society there represents the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn that the society there are the prised to learn the p hateful deformity, and I cannot and about these grand results. We are in will not patronize any paper, or support that article said to be "defunet." I more avenue of labor. An evening class, any party, that relies upon such senti-ments or teachers for support. The have taken the best possible means in have taken the best possible means in to be commenced. In connection with the composing room is a stereotyping department, in which business instruction will also be given, that employ-ment being equally suitable and offer-ing good inducements to women. An Woman's Rights Feeling in Portland.

The recent lectures of Miss Anthony, This department of the NEW Noteral wester is to be a general vehicle for exchange of ideas concerning any and all matters that may be legitimately discussed in our columns. Finding it practically impossible to answer each correspondent by private letter, we adopt this mode of communication to save our friends the disappointment that would friends the disappointment that would are supposed by the observation of the MEW Noteral westers of Miss Anthony, in this city, on woman suffrage, have that the city, on woman suffrage, have the considered a truth. The Italians say of woman La donna c mobile; qual pinnia of the Tide."

We are ready, my friends, for the turn of the Tide."

We are ready, my friends, for the turn of the Tide."

We are ready, my friends, for the turn of the Tide."

We are ready, my friends, for the turn of the Tide."

We are ready, my friends, for the turn of the Tide."

Muto d'acceuto—e di pensier; Sempre un amabile, etc. The Greeks say a "Gane tupicos epi adassia," and the Cells have at way "Bann agus gailh graffl." All these unite in declaring the mutability of woman's ideas, and from this theory of woman's rights newspaners, all the described by the woman's rights newspaners, all the declaring the matability of woman's ideas, and from this theory of woman's rights newspaners, all the declaring the matability of woman's ideas, and from this theory of woman's rights newspaners, all the cells is to be considered a truth. The Italians say of woman La donna c mobile; qual pinnia. The Italians say of woman La donna c mobile; qual pinnia of the Tide."

We are ready, my friends. We are ready, my friends. Muto d'acceuto—e di pensier; Sempre un amabile; etc. The Greeks say a "Gane tupicos epi adassia," and the Cells have a way "Bann agus gailh graffl." All these unite in declaring the matability of woman's rights newspaners, all the cells is to be considered and truth. The Italians say of woman La donna c mobile; qual pinnia declaring the matabile in the cells."

We are ready, my friends. All the tide: As Mrs. Gordon was with you so reeverybody that has a question to ask, a cently, and you are doubtless intimate with the fact of her nomination for State Senator from this county a few work.

Senator from this county a few work.

THE PIONEER SOCIETY,

Woman Suffragist in the land with holy in the future. It is this: In any and all and intelligent members, not to reckon teenth Amendments, are not, it is stated, but a mere fraction of those who give women to vote under these Amendments at no distant day. On the principle that the weak must use strategy where strength is lacking the gentle ble patience with such inconsistency present complexion of politics.

Were it not that we are compelled to for.

Will women enter the political arena is a question which many a lord of creation may ask himself, and he shives a ion may ask himself, and he shivers as he thinks of a refined wife, mother, sister or daughter struggling and jostling with wantons, and the ruder and more with wantons, and the ruder and more as life slowly ebbed away. The sick "Is my brother come?" "Is my brother come?" ignorant class of females to reach the allot-box and deposit her vote for a Snooks or Pilkins. Miss Anthony in reply to this states that woman would tional questions where her own or her children's welfare would be at stake. This, however, like other assertions of the good woman would accomplish with the ballot is speculative and theoretical the good woman would accomplish with the ballot is speculative and theoretical three parties. the ballot, is speculative and theoretical. Hist ti Woman is said to be at the present day.

ble as the elemal hills, while all the earlies of infidels have been answered and refuted a thousand times, and today are only calculated to mislead, betwilder and rule the ignorant.

Place a bone in the earth near the root of a grape, and the vine will send out a full throw out no fibres, but when it reaches the bone the root will enterprise so worthy as this inaugurated of a grape, and the vine will send out a full throw out no fibres, but when it reaches the bone the root will enterprise so worthy as this inaugurated of a grape, and the vine will send out as the would want a new idea evolved, as she would desire a new type of bonnet or mode of dressing the hair. Euripedes, that the most delicate fibres like lace, each one seeking a pore of the Sone.

Northwest to be the advocate of the woman's rights, but a human rights or good or evil, as it would weary her, and she would want a new idea evolved, as she would desire a new type of bonnet or mode of dressing the hair. Euripedes, latt the most delicate fibres like lace, each one seeking a pore of the Sone.

Northwest to be the advocate of the woman's rights, but a human rights or good or evil, as it would weary her, and she would want a new idea evolved, as she would desire a new type of bonnet or mode of dressing the hair. Euripedes, latt the most delicate fibres like lace, each one seeking a pore of the Sone.

Northwest to be the advocate of the woman's rights, but a human rights or good or evil, as it would weary her, and she would want a new idea evolved, as she would desire a new type of bonnet or mode of dressing the hair. Euripedes, latt the most delicate fibres like lace, each one seeking a pore of the Sone.

Northwest to be the advocate of the will continue to a continual a resident of Brooklyu, is worth $1,000.

Mary M. Andrews, a girl of fifteen, a resident of Brooklyu, is worth $1,000.

Mary M. Andrews, a girl of fifteen, a resident of Brooklyu, is worth $1,000.

And he said, the time of woman's rights, but a human rights would desire and when the theory proved thereby; but Virgil terming the sex "Varium Semper et mutabile femina," followed as he is by other

MRS. GORDON'S CAMPAIGN IN CALfriends the disappointment that would gated by the woman's rights newspapers, alone some opponents of woman's rights newspapers, alone declared that the gentle sex, if it will never be right of sufficient the right of suffic be more apt to use its influence for that which pleased the feelings, rather than

Senator from this county, a few words in regard to the first election campaign

Mary E. S., whose paper was a short regard to the first election campaign

The help in all things to do right, my boys, it is only advanced as one of the class urged by a certain selection will open his eyes with astonagainst woman suffrage. The women -Portland Herold.

The Untold Love of Alice Cary.

Allee Cary lived and died a maiden queen of poesy. It had seemed to many impossible that she should have carried her tender and passionate heart through. Then kelp in all things, etc. the social and literary thoroughfares wherein she was called to tread, unpierced by any amorous shaft. And it it was indeed impossible. There is a se-cret page of the history of the deceased builder, we were enabled to get the pa-vilion erected for the county fair for our woman is not entitled to one cent of the second and last meeting, and notwith-money she carns, or any voice as to its second and last meeting, and notwith- money she earns, or any voice as to its held occasionally at the residence of the finitely alludes in the sketch published in the Ladies' Repository of last month, and widely copied. The writer says substantially therein that if her sister that our audience amounted to over two thousand people. And when we reflect thousand people. And when we reflect that probably more than half that number would never have attended a woman suffrage lecture but for the novelty of these odious and unhuman laws will be the sale of the sale truth. It seems intended to stop flying about a good deal, and thought of a rumors, while refraining from an unrumors, while refraining from an un-equivocal and impossible denial.

Woman Suffragist in the land with holy faith in the speedy triumph of our cause.

Mrs. G's speech was a plorious suc.

Indicate the first pilgrimage to the first pilgrimage t wold lay dying of a lingering disease in the metropolis, in poverty, and alone. His literary ventures had brought inadequate remuneration, and he lived a life which it was not altogether pleassonably blessed by fortune. The in-jured woman forgot her wrongs and for-radiant, but his heart found out his Our esteem for him is so warm and deep gave the past with a readiness charac-teristic of her sex. She came to the bedside of the man who had so griev-entrance of the star, and sald to the he is a dangerous enemy to a cause norant class of females to reach the allot-box and deposit her vote for a mooks or Pilkins. Miss Anthony in ply to this states that woman would make herself to the social and educations where her carried by days and nights of labor with the pen was freely lavished. At his and then she turned her beaming eyes

A NEW PAPER IN OREGON.—The And when she received the ballot, her whims and caprices of what she does and does not want to accomplish with it would be as mutable as her fashions are at the present day.

A NEW PAPER IN OREGON.—The out upon the star as on the home he was to go to, when his time should come; and he thought that he did not belong to the earth alone, but to the star, too, because of his sister's angel gone before. There was a baby born to be a brother at the present day. cheerful as it would if born in Massa-chusetts. Mrs. A. J. Duniway is editor to the child; and while he was so little of all writers of prominence, known to history, are taken as authority, woman would not—judging from her character—following extract from its columns vote twice on the same subject, let it be show: "The New Norraways is not a for good or acily as it would be show: "The New Norraways is not a show; "The New Norraways is not a show; "The New Nora

The New Northwest.

MRS. A. J. DUNIWAY, Editor and Proprietor.

OFFICE Cor. Third and Washington St.

TERMS, IN ADVANCE:

ADVERTISEMENTS Inserted on Reasonable

busy at his books when an old servant me to him and said:
"Thy mother is no more. I bring her the sing on her darling son."

Again at night he saw the star, and all that former company. Said his sister's angel to the leader:

Angel to the leaner:

"Is my brother come?"

And he said, "Thy mother!"

A mighty cry of joy went forth through all the star, because the mother was reunited to her two children. And he stretched out his arms and cried, "O, mother, sister, and brother, I am here!

Take me!" And they answered him.
"Not yet," and the star was shining.
He grew to be a man, whose hair was turning gray, and he was sitting in his chair by the fireside, heavy with grief, and with his face believed with tears, when the star opened one again Said his sister's angel to the leader, "Is my brother come?"

And he said, "Nay, but his maiden

And the man who had been the child saw his daughter, newly lost to him, a celestial creature among those three, and he said, "My daughter's head is on my sister's bosom, and her arm is round my mother's neck, and at her feet there is the baby of old time, and I can bear the parting from her, God be praised?"

And the star was shining. Thus the child came to be an old man, and his once smooth face was wrinkled, and his steps were slow and feeble, and his back was bent. And one night as he lay upon his bed, his children standing round, he cried, as he had cried so long

They whispered one another, "He is

And he said, "I am. My age is falling from me like a garment, and I move towards the star as a child. And O, my Father, now I thank thee that it has so often opened, to receive those dear ones who await me !

And the star was shining; and it shines open his grave.

Mr. Greeley's Course on the Woman Question.

If anybody supposes that we are wantrecord from the oblivion to which the dered at the goodness and the power of mistaken and morbid kindness of friends would fain consign it. When the Cary would fain consign it. When the Cary would fain consign it. have always entertained for this honest

When, therefore, we say, as we frank ly do, that the course of the Tribu yet be tempted to end his life in a mon-that we would rather these words were blow which he deserves .- T. Tilton in Golden Age.

SUDDEN CONVERSION .- Many are the conversions in our city in favor of woman suffrage since the lecture given by Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton. She has left behind her impressions of the most favorable character for the cause among From that hour forth, the child looked our first citizens. There have been many clear cases of sudden conversions in our not be laughed down, Mrs. Santon, Miss Anthony, Mrs. Mott, Mrs. Howe and Mrs. Blackwell, and others less known to fame, have no superiors in moral worth and few equals in mental accomplishments. They may be ridiculed by their ignorant opponents, and by journals that pander to a debased public. But even a very mangy cat may stare at a king.—Vallejo Recurder.

true that she would desire continual change to keep her interest in politics antiring.

The assertion of mutability may be denied by woman, and the falsity of the little denied by woman, and the said, "Not that one, but anothers, but an others,"

And he said, "Not that one, but anothers, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but anothers, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but anothers, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but anothers, and the said, "Not that one, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but any others, and the said, "Not that one, but any others,

Campaign Song.

NUMBER 21.

ORDS BY MES. A. J. BUNIWAY. Air-"Wait for the Turn of the Tide,"

And where all do their duty, the ministers tell They surely will conquer division and strife.

CHORUS. Then help in all things to do right, my boys, Hurrals for the turn of the tide!

In passing along through the busy street, Watching the surging sea Of thoughtful faces we every day meet Ye see much that ought not to be, A greg shop is there, in the heart of your city Another is youder, right over the way! Of bad men and women to lead you astray

To mend all these matters we women will you We'll sit in the councils with you; Your good will we crave, but we dont can

For the ballot in the hands of the few Then hurrals and ha! ha! for the good time is coming! Is coming, my sisters? Not coming, but here,

When gin and tobacco won't legislate for us, But we'll vote for the right with our brothers dying so dear. Then help in all things, etc.

A Child's Dream of a Star.

There was once a child, and he strolled cquivocal and impossible denial.

As the story can only serve as a foil panion. These two used to womer an to the virtues and amiable qualities of its subject, we need no further excuse of the flowers; they wondered at the depth of the bright water; they water wat They used to say to one another, sometimes, supposing all the children upon earth were to die, would the flow. When, therefore ers, and the water, and the sky, be sorry?

her attention more assistionsly to her special labors. The story needs not to be fully detailed here. It has been told over and over again, ever since the over and over again, ever since the world had a literature. Several years in which they stood, and fell upon the passed, and in 1857 Rufus Wilmot Gris- people's necks and kissed them tenderly, and then what have you left to protect under the head of "Spurious Woman signs imparting instruction in type-set-Chancy's article is infidelity in all its terred to is the one that has brought of the number of poor women seeking Bible and Christianity have stood the the world to prove that we are severest tests for some two thousand years, and to-day stand as impregna- STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 12, 1871. ble as the eternal hills, while all the ground for or against Bible principles and Bible teachings. It will not do to support some portions of the Bible and either the Book of God, or it is a forgery. "Who is on the Lord's side ?" Respectfully, &c., J. H. D. HENDERSON.

VOLUME 1.

Mrs. G.'s speech was a glorious success. Even men opposed to the moves

DE FACTO.